The lyrics are: "There's a ship lies rigged and read-y in the heard there's a wick-ed war a - har - bour. To - mor - row for old En - ge - land she sails. Far a - blaz - ing, The taste of war I know so ver - y well. E - ven way from your land of end-less sun-shine To my land full of rain - y skies and now I see the for-eign flag a - rais-ing, Their guns on fire as we sail in - to gales. And I shall be on board that ship to - mor - row, Though my hell. I have no fear of death it brings no sor - row, But how heart is full of tears at this fare - well. For you are beau - ti - ful and bit - ter will be this last fare - well. I have loved you dear - ly, More dear - ly than the spo - ken words can tell. For you are beau - ti - ful and I have loved you dear - ly More dear - ly than the spo - ken words can tell. I tell."
